

New Beverages Onboard a Flight Near You

If your fall travel checklist includes treating yourself to a refreshing drink* on your next flight, then you're in luck! Southwest Airlines has expanded our alcoholic beverage lineup by adding six new drinks to our menu:

- High Noon Hard Seltzer – Pineapple ($7): Made with real vodka, real pineapple juice, and sparkling water. Only 100 calories, no sugar added, and gluten free.
- Stone Cellars California Rosé Wine ($6): Combines aromas of watermelon, berry fruits, and slight minerality. Coupled with a very dry palate, the minerality leads to a crisp finish.
- Dogfish Head Strawberry Vodka Lemonade Ready-to-Drink Cocktail ($7): Scratch-made cocktail features vodka distilled with honeyberries, macerated with strawberries, and blended with a house-made lemonade.
- Kula Toasted Coconut Rum ($7) Hawaii only: Coconut aroma and flavor is complemented by background notes of vanilla and dark brown sugar, then gives way to the flavor of toasted fresh coconut flakes.
- Kona Big Wave Golden Ale ($7) Hawaii only: A lighter-bodied golden ale with a tropical hop aroma and flavor.

In addition, we plan to resume our seasonal beer rotation throughout the year. Also onboard today is Leinenkugel's Oktoberfest ($7), a traditional Märzen-style beer has a toasted malt flavor and subtle, spicy hop notes.

These beverage offerings join our current lineup of Miller Lite ($6), Blue Moon ($7), Lagunitas IPA ($7), Cruset Brut Sparkling Wine ($6), Mossel Bay Chenin Blanc Chardonnay ($6), Carmenet Cabernet Sauvignon ($6), Deep Eddy Vodka ($7), Deep Eddy Lime Vodka ($7), Jack Daniels Whiskey ($7), Wild Turkey Bourbon Whiskey ($7), Bacardi Rum ($7), and Cazadores Tequila ($7).
