

Showering Customers with April's New Inflight Entertainment Offerings

Southwest Airlines offers free inflight entertainment* for our Customers to enjoy, including movies, live TV, On Demand TV Series channels, "The Scoop" digital publication, and iHeartRadio stations and podcasts available onboard our WiFi-equipped fleet. In addition, Customers can watch new featured movies like "House of Gucci," "The King's Man," and "The Matrix Resurrections;" as well as our "Fresh Start" movies like "17 Again," "Going on Style," and "The Intern."

Now Available: "The Scoop" Spring Edition

Earlier this year we introduced "The Scoop," a new digital publication by Southwest Airlines. Customers can now read written Southwest content via the e-reader on the Inflight Entertainment Portal. We are thrilled to introduce "The Scoop" spring edition, with content featuring Bob Jordan, People of Southwest, community partner Repurpose with Purpose, and much more!

- Bob's Message: A letter from Bob that welcomes our Customers onboard and overviews some of the important initiatives at Southwest.
- From Our Heart: An Employee Spotlight that celebrates our Employees and the amazing work they do each day to go above and beyond for our Customers.
- From Your Heart: Features a Southwest Customer and underscores the Southwest Values, Heart, and Hospitality that we extend to each of our Customers.
- Community Focus: Highlights how Southwest does well by doing good in the communities in which we serve.

The Scoop complements the Southwest video content that we have available in the Portal. Be sure to check out the Southwest Stories, Southwest Citizenship, and Southwest Destinations On Demand TV Series for videos that give an inside look at Southwest, where we fly, and some of our community work.

To access "The Scoop," Customers can visit Southwestwifi.com, then click the menu in the upper left corner and click "From Our CEO" (the second to last link at the bottom of the menu). A PDF will open up on their device and will remain open as long as the Customer chooses.
