

My City, My Heart: Nashville, An Insider's Look at Music City

Have you experienced Nashville for yourself yet? Whether you've visited Music City or not, learn insider tips through this episode of My City, My Heart: An Insiders' Guide by Southwest Employees.

Episode Two features Southwest Provisioning Agent, Angie, as she leads viewers through her hometown of Nashville. Angie shows all the charm that Nashville has to offer. Not only is Nashville a hub for discovering new musical artists and line dancing the night away, but it also allows visitors to get off the beaten path to discover new friends that will warm their hearts.

Southwest is proud to partner with Matador Network to release this four-episode series called, My City, My Heart: An Insiders' Guide by Southwest Employees. Follow four of our Employees as they show you the best places to go in their hometowns.